

ASBMR SCIENTIFIC INTEREST GROUP APPLICATION FORM

ASBMR Scientific Interest Groups (SIGs) can enhance your involvement in ASBMR and expand your career network. SIGs offer opportunities to increase your leadership skills, help plan targeted educational offerings, and simply meet other ASBMR members with similar interests, areas of specialization or practice settings.

New SIG Application Process

If you are interested in starting a new SIG, please complete this application form and send all completed applications to the ASBMR Executive Office (ASBMR@ASBMR.org). The Executive Committee will review requests for new SIGs on a quarterly basis during the fiscal year. For more information about the review and approval process, please reach out to the ASBMR Executive Office (ASBMR@ASBMR.org).

PLEASE COMPLETE THE FOLLOWING INFORMATION:

1. Name of Member(s) Completing this application:
2. Proposed Name of Scientific Interest Group:
3. Proposed Champion and Membership Engagement Committee Chair(s):
4. Please describe how your proposed SIG will engage and meet the needs of specialized segments of ASBMR's membership.
5. How does this SIG differ from other SIGs with similar areas of focus?
6. Names of at least 15 ASBMR members who will commit to be members of this SIG:

